

I object to Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. They are clearly overstepping their bounds. They use the public airways free of charge and are obligated by law to serve the public interest. When large companies control the airwaves and decide that their own interest is the public's interest, then this country is in big trouble. In fact, it speaks of fascism, and I'm decidedly against it.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
